Websites

National Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel website: www.npuap.org Website for one of the key panels for pressure ulcers. Gives recommendations plus some more up-to-date info.

Wound Care Information Network website: www.medicaledu.com This was an interesting website. This site collects the info about different brands of dressings (apparently voluntary info from each manufacturer without any particular commercial bias) and describes how each dressing is used. Also describes different concepts for wound care.
